Schemes for Small and Marginal Farmers

2672. SHRI K. KALAVENKATA RAO:
SHRI C. RAMACHANDRAIAH:

Will the Minister of AGRICULTURE be pleased to state:-

(a) the details of various schemes under operation for small and marginal farmers in different States of the country;

(b) how far these farmers have been benefited by these schemes; and

(c) what has been the performance so far as Andhra Pradesh in concerned?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI S.B.P.B.K SATYANARAYANA RAO): (a) to (c) The Department of Agriculture and Cooperation do not make any distinction in the availability of benefits to various categories of farmers including small and marginal farmers in all the states including in Andhra Pradesh. However some of the scheme/ components whereunder benefits flow to small and marginal farmers include the following:—

(1) Subsidy @ 90 per cent of the cost subject of a ceiling of Rs. 25000 per hectare for installation of sprinkler irrigation system and drip irrigation system under various crop oriented production programmes.

(2) Assistance to the extent of 50 per cent of the cost of the improved farm implements or Rs. 1500 per equipment which ever is less under the Oilseed Production Programme.

(3) Subsidy of 50 per cent on premium under the Rashtriya Krishi Bima Yojana.

Since, the benefits under the schemes flow to the farmers both in a direct and indirect manner, it is not possible to quantify them separately or assess the performance of individual State.

Missing Employees

2673. SHRI P. PRABHAKAR REDDY: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether as per existing rules, any person missing for more than 7 years is assumed to be dead;

(b) if so, the details of employees of Department of Atomic Energy reported missing from 1992 in Madhya Pradesh and action taken/proposed to be taken against the officials for not issuing final investigation report in this regard;

(c) by when the final reports are likely to be issued so that the dues may be settled?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF ATOMIC ENERGY (SHRIMATI VASUNDHARA RAJE): (a) Yes, Sir.
